

Indiana's Telehone Privacy Law has finally given us the relief and peace at home from phone solicitors that my husband and I have sought for years. We would be terribly dissappointed and discouraged to have our, far superior, Indiana law preempted by a the FCC adopting a lower and more lenient national standard. We respectfully ask that you please do not weaken our strong and very successful law. Sincerely, Stanley and Ann B. Hayes